ORDER:-

In the reference 1st read above, the Vice-Chancellor, AP Horticultural University has reported that, as per the Resolution in the Board of Management of AP Horticultural University, it was resolved to establish a new Horticultural Polytechnic in Karimnagar District. An experts committee appointed by the University visited three locations in Karimnagar District and finalized the location at Ramagirikhilla of Kamanpur Mandal and two buildings offered by Singareni Collieries, Centenary colony, were hired to start the College. Accordingly, admissions were taken for the Academic year 2008-09.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Registrar, AP Horticultural University, Venkataramannagudem, West Godavari District also reported that, for establishment of Horticultural Polytechnic college in Karimnagar district during the academic year 2008-09, the University has constituted a Committee for identifying the suitable land along with the infrastructure facilities available for starting the above said college. The Committee identified nearly 150 acres of land along with temporary infrastructure facilities to be provided by Singareni Collieries Ltd, at Ramagirikhilla, Medipalli village in Kamanpur Mandal, Karimnagar District. The same was placed before the Board of Management meeting held, on 24.10.2008 and it had approved for starting the Horticultural Polytechnic college in anticipation of the approval from Government. During his visit to Manthani Constituency, the Hon'ble CM has announced and inaugurated the Horticultural polytechnic college in Karimnagar District on 20.9.2008..

3 In view of the above, the Registrar, AP Horticultural University, has requested the Government to ratify his action in having started the new Horticultural Polytechnic at Ramagirikhilla, Medipalli village in Kamanpur Mandal, Karimnagar District during the academic year 2008-09 with the available staff and funds.
